

VITA

NAME: J. Barto Arnold III, R.P.A.

PLACE OF BIRTH: San Antonio, Texas

CURRENT POSITION: Director of Texas Operations, Institute of Nautical Archaeology, Texas A&M University

EDUCATION: B.A. The University of Texas at Austin, 1971 (Cum Laude; Phi Beta Kappa)
M.A. The University of Texas at Austin, 1973

POSITIONS HELD: Texas Archeological Research Laboratory, The University of Texas at Austin, excavation crew member--George C. Davis Site (41CE19), 1970.
Texas Archeological Research Laboratory, The University of Texas at Austin, research assistant (Antiquities Conservation Lab), 1971-72.
Texas Antiquities Committee, assistant marine archeologist, 1972-75.
Texas Antiquities Committee, Texas Historical Commission, State Marine Archeologist, 1975 to 1997.
Institute of Nautical Archaeology, Texas A&M University, Director of Texas Operations, 1997 to date.

PUBLICATIONS: Over 100 books and articles in professional archaeological journals.

SCOUTING: Eagle Scout

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES AND HONORS:

Advisory committee on certification of Marine Survey Archeologists for the Society of Professional Archeologists, Chairman 1976-77, member 1978, Chairman 1979-80.

Advisory Council on Underwater Archaeology; ex officio member 1977; member 1978 to 1992, Vice Chairman 1981; Chairman 1982-1984 and 1985-1987.

U.S.S. Monitor Technical Advisory Committee sponsored by NOAA, member 1977-1990.

Underwater archeology consultant for the National Trust for Historic Preservation, Maritime Preservation Program, 1979 to 1990.

Presidio La Bahia Award, best publication on Spanish colonial history or archeology, Sons of the Republic of Texas, 1979.

1980 U.S. Department of Interior, Heritage Conservation and Recreation Service Achievement Award for Historic Preservation relating to research on the 1554 fleet.

Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Society of Professional Archeologists, 1985-1987.

Secretary-Treasurer, Society of Professional Archeologists, 1987-1989.

Governor's Advisory Committee on Maritime Archeology, State of Maryland, 1987-1989.

Underwater Archaeology Program Chairman, Society for Historical Archaeology Conference on Historical and Underwater Archaeology, Baltimore, Maryland, 1989.

Entry in Who's Who in America, 1998 and other regional and special areas editions.

Society of Professional Archeologists Special Achievement Award for contributions to passage of the Abandoned Shipwreck Act into law, 1990.

President, Society for Historical Archaeology 1993; President-Elect, 1992; Past President, 1994.

1st Place Artifact Image, 1993 Archaeological Photo Festival Competition held at the Society for Historical Archaeology's Annual Meeting.

Presented the first Peter Throckmorton Memorial Lecture, May 13, 1993, in the public lecture, series of the Institute of Archaeology, UCLA, entitled Underwater Archaeology of the Shipwrecks of New Spain Fleet, 1554: Padre Island, Texas.

1st Place Field Work in Progress, 1994 Archaeological Photo Festival Competition held at the Society for Historical Archaeology's Annual Meeting

Member, History Areas Committee of the National Park System Advisory Board, US Dept. of the Interior, 1994.

Invited speaker (regarding the La Salle Shipwreck Project), Annual Meeting of the Philosophical Society of Texas, Corpus Christi, Texas, December 1-3, 1995.

1st Place Field Work in Progress and 1st Place Artifact Image, 1996 Archaeological Photo Festival Competition held at the Society for Historical Archaeology's Annual Meeting.

Committee member, Society for American Archaeology, National Historic Landmark Review Committee, 1995-1998.

Consulting editor for underwater archaeology, International Journal of Historical Archaeology, 1997 to 2011.

Fellow (National), The Explorers Club, 1998.