AGENDA

Friday 3 March 2017

Geren Auditorium, College of Architecture, Texas A&M University

5:15 PM  REGISTRATION in Geren Exhibit Hall
5:45 PM  Welcome and Introductions
6:00 PM  John H. Stubbs
         Director of Preservation Studies Program and Christovich Senior Professor of Architectural Preservation Practice in the Tulane School of Architecture. Author of Time Honored: A Global View of Architectural Conservation (Wiley 2009)
7:30 PM  RECEPTION, Wright Gallery, Langford A, 2nd Floor
8:30 PM  Adjourn for the evening

SATURDAY 4 March 2017

Geren Auditorium, College of Architecture, Texas A&M University

8:00 AM  REGISTRATION at Geren Auditorium / Breakfast
8:45 AM  Welcome and Introductions
9:00 AM  Colleen Hanratty Archaeologist with the Maya Research Program, co-director of the Blue Creek
         Archaeological Project, and owner of Linda Vista Archaeology
         "Modeling a Maya City: Conservation of Archaeological Resources in Northwestern Belize."
9:50 AM  Peter Gavette, Archaeologist with the U.S. National Park Service, Golden Gate National Recreation Area
         “Visualizing Historic Landscapes on Alcatraz in 3D for Archeological Prospection”
10:40 AM BREAK
10:55 AM Justin Parkoff, Project Manager at Texas A&M’s Conservation Research Laboratory
         "A Formidable Looking Pile of Iron Boilers and Machinery": The Conservation and Reconstruction of USS Westfield in relation to the Secretary of the Interiors Standards on Historic Preservation
11:45 AM LUNCH
12:45 PM APT Texas Meeting
1:35 PM  Poster Session
2:20 PM  Shawn Evans, Principal at Atkin Olshin Schade Architects
         "Historic Preservation, Self-Determination, and the Cultural Resiliency of Traditional Pueblo Villages"
3:10 PM  Concluding Remarks
3:20 PM  Adjourn